

LIWITDS

OUR YEAR
1980

SLIMWIDS

Isn't it strange

how Captains and Kings and Clowns who caper

And clowns who caper

in sawdust rings,

And just plain folks

like you and me

Are builders of our destiny.

To each is given a bag of tools,

A shapeless mass

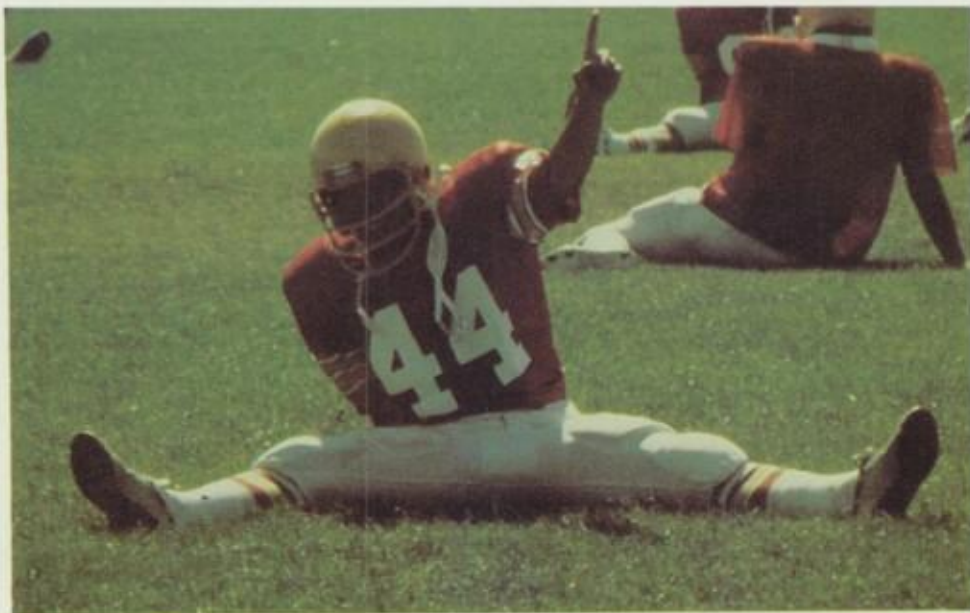

and a book of rules

And each must fashion, ere time has flown,

A stumbling block . . . or a stepping stone.

ADS

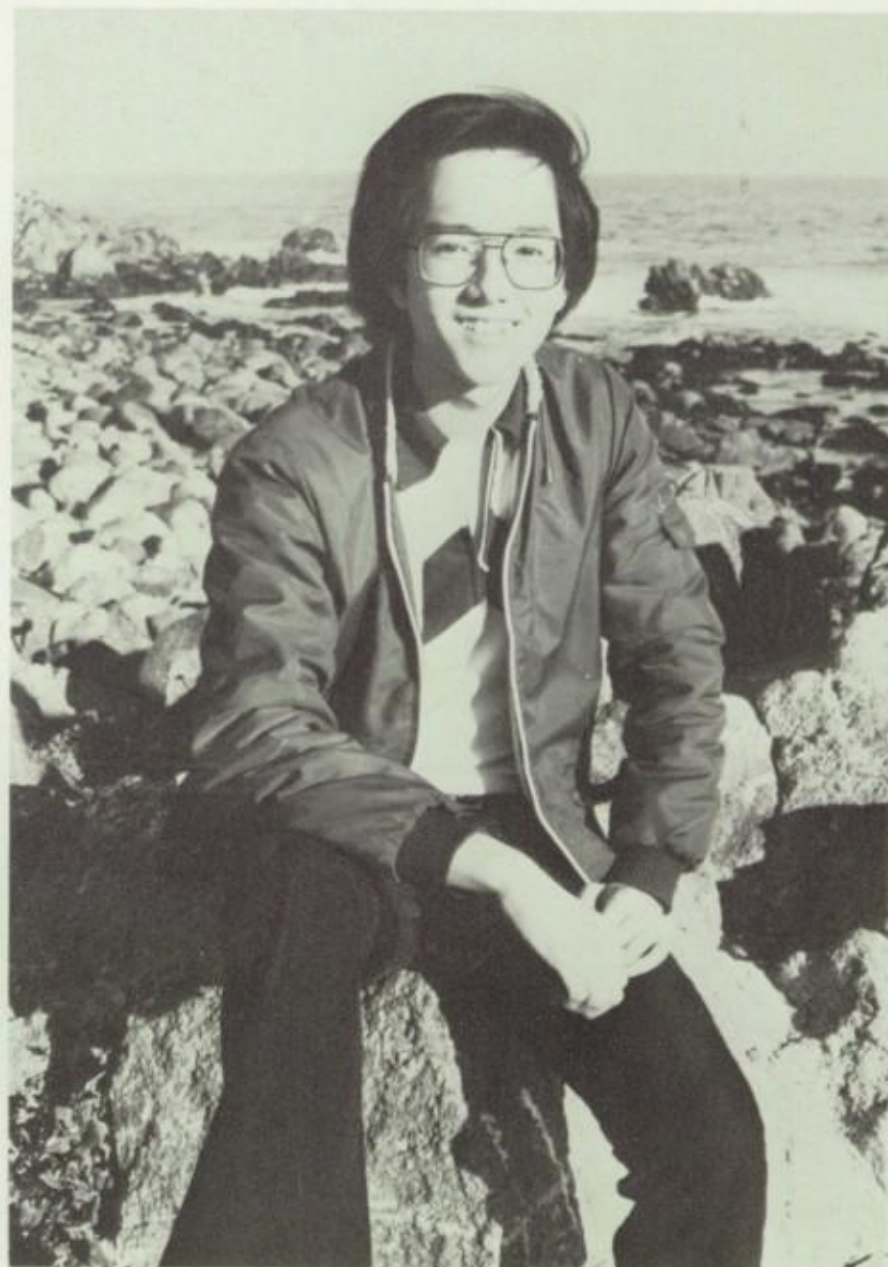

SENIORS

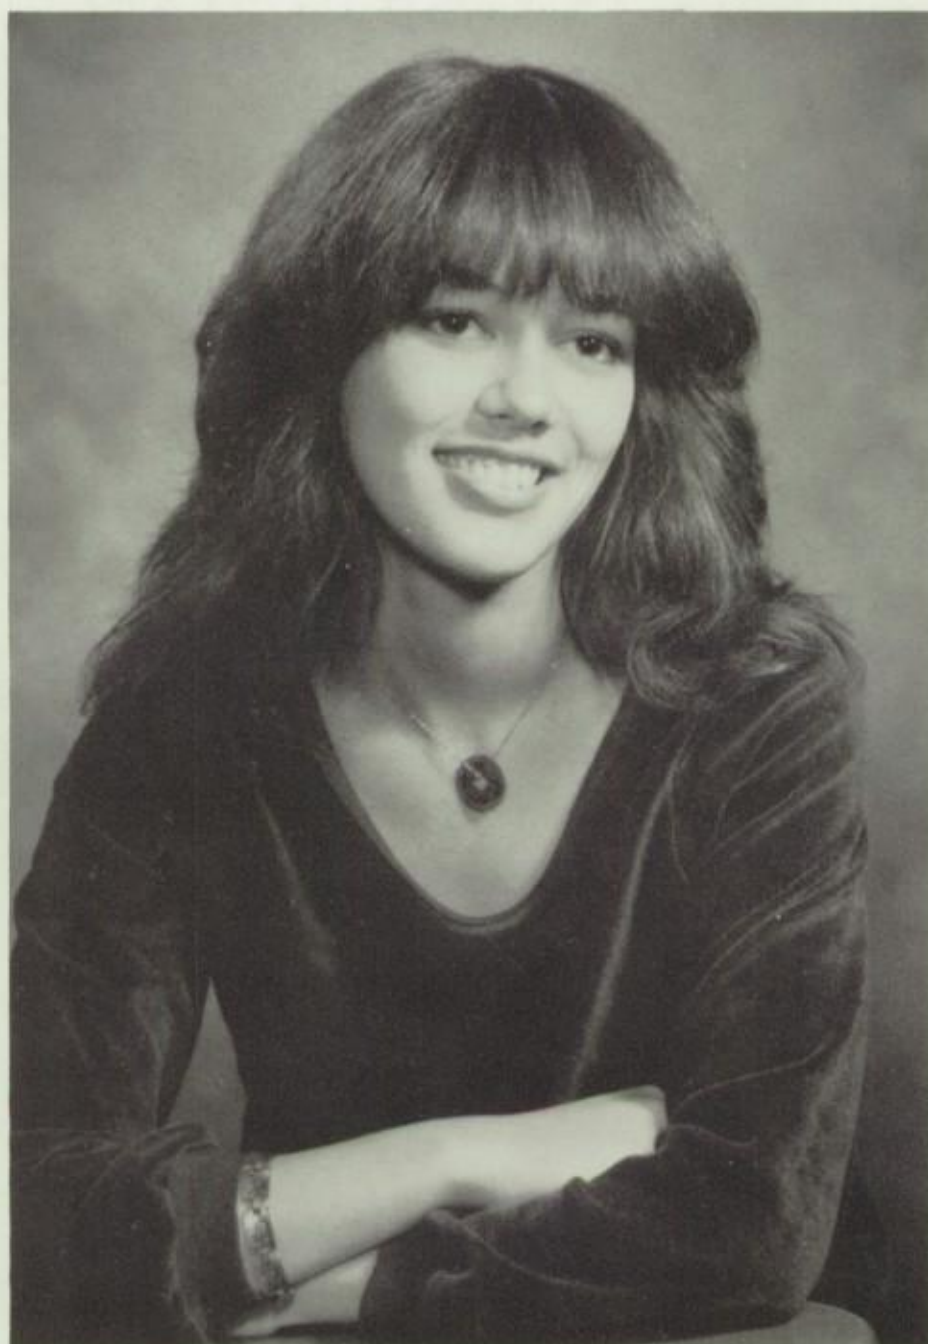

James Liu

My search has ended, and through the discovery of my love, I discovered myself.

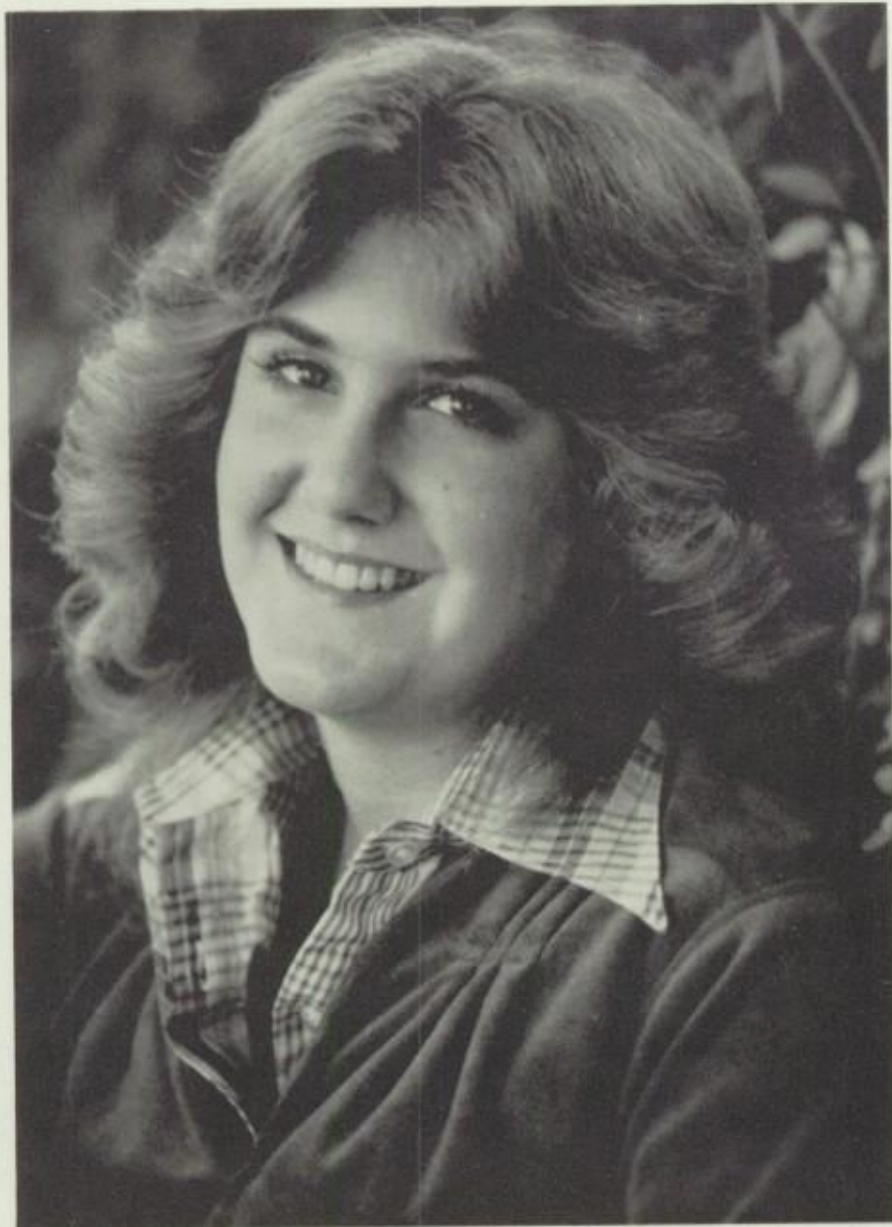

Tisa Fleming

I'm in love with life and I have so much to be thankful for; it's time for me to pay my dues.

Elizabeth Perry

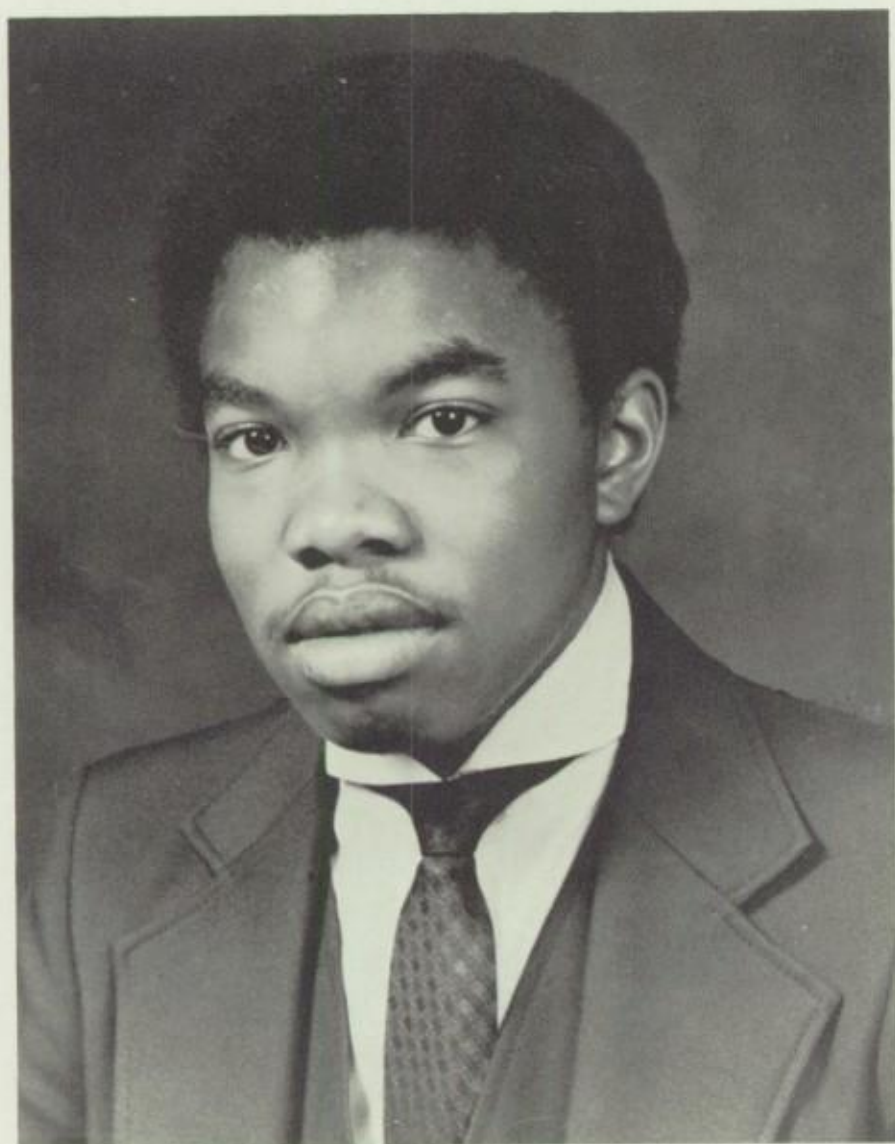

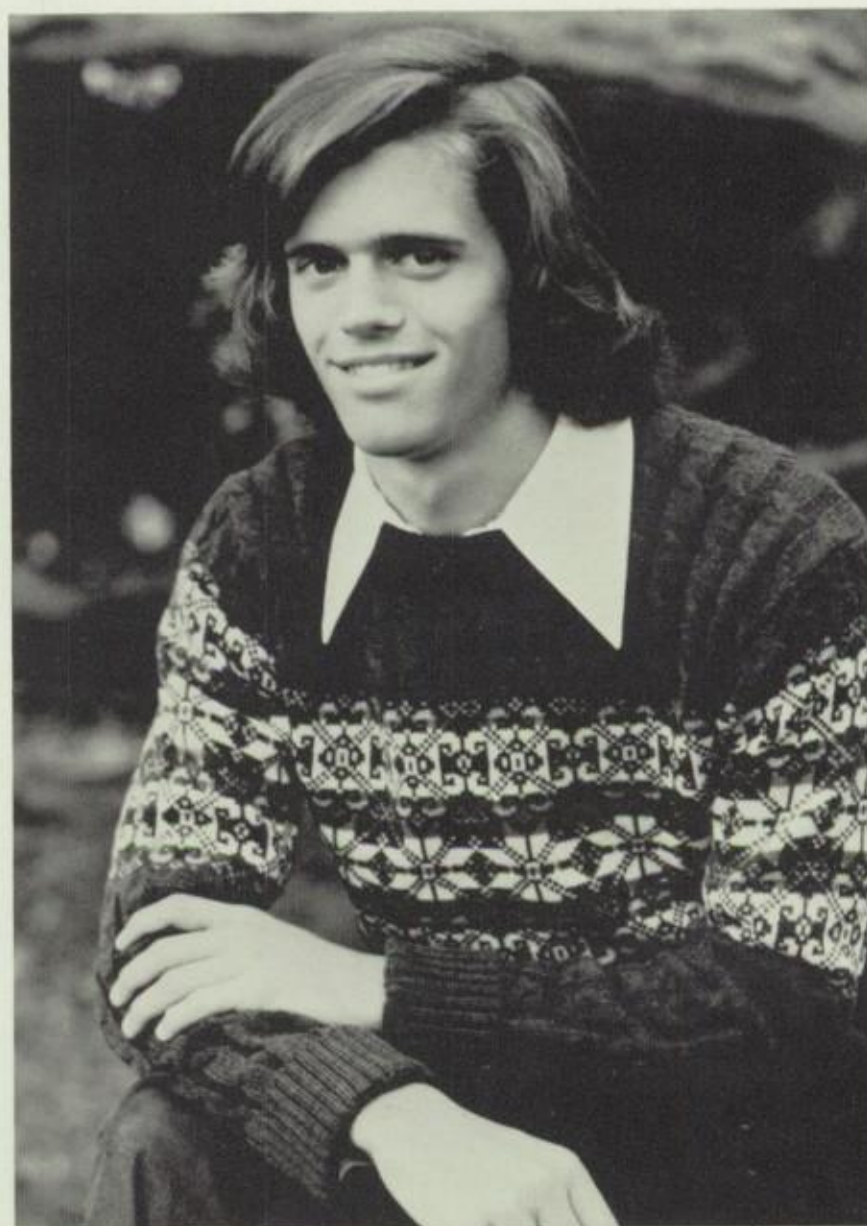

The difference between genius and stupidity is that genius has its limits.

Lori Jones

I have never let my schooling interfere with my education

Chuck Andrew

Cliff Waddy

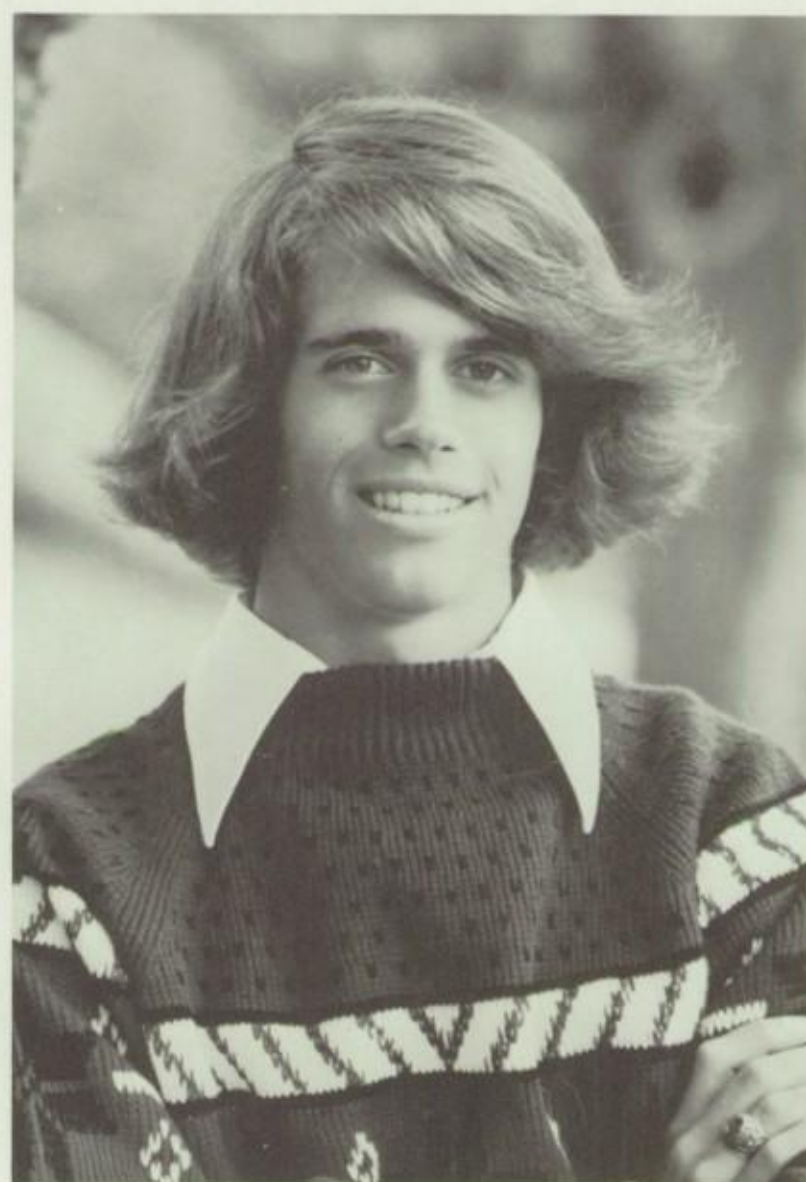

Not all great men are wise.

Brett Henderson

Julie Lozano

The best thing about the future is that it comes one day at a time.

Chris Andrew

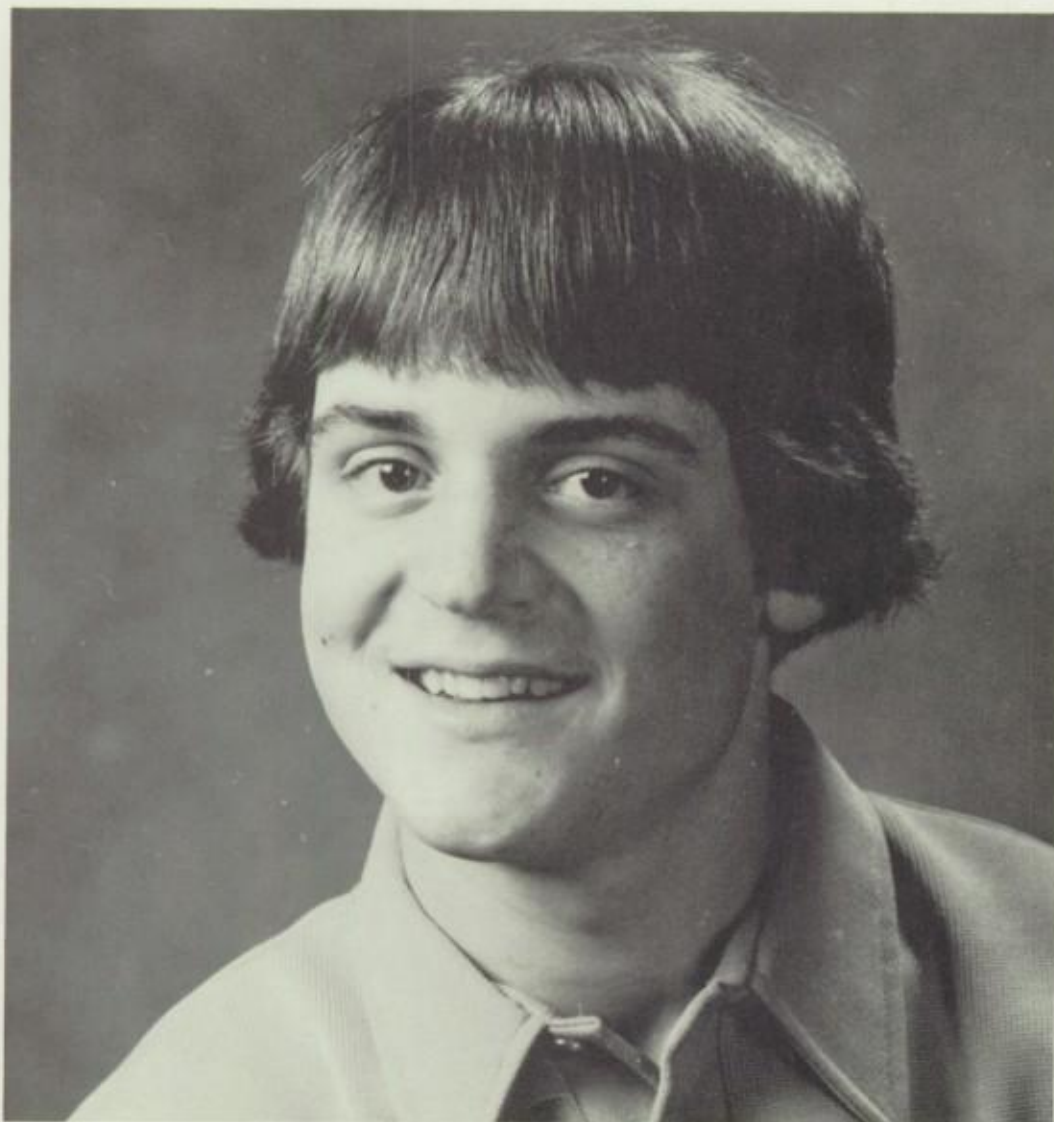

Cheri Johnston

Love him today as you did yesterday, and even more tomorrow.

Irma Razo

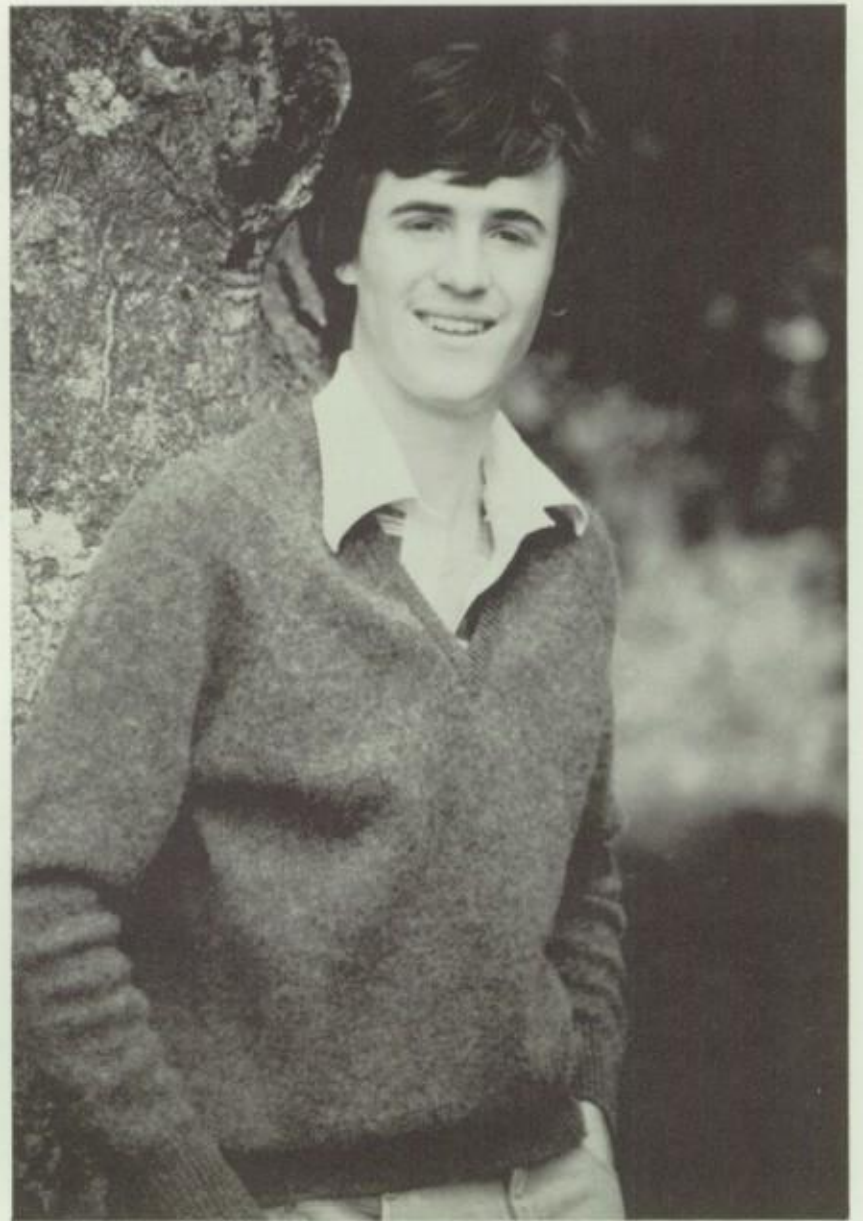

As time goes, we go.

James Pia

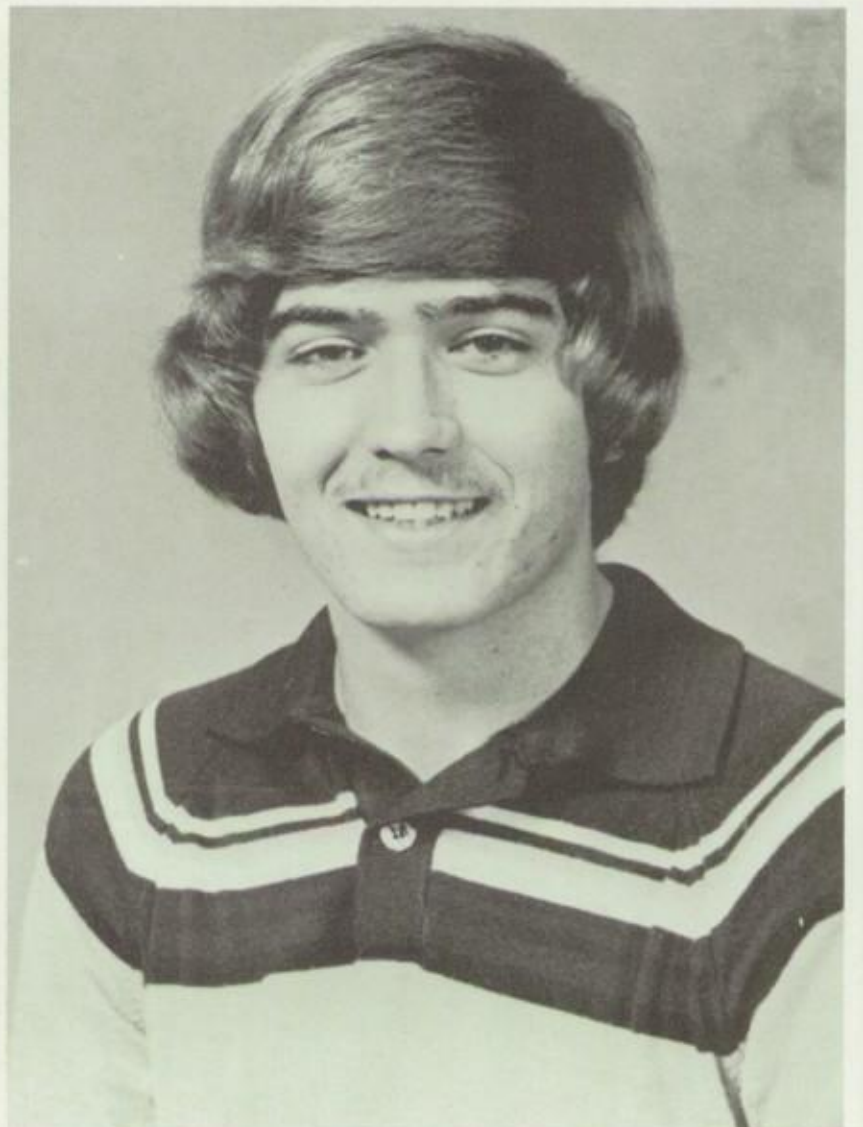

John Bell

Life is too short for logic.

Lisa Trabano

So hope, faith, and love abide, but the greatest of these is love.

Edward Saunders

Rosalyn Taylor

Tom Pia

Mary Jane Cardinale

Debbie LeKander

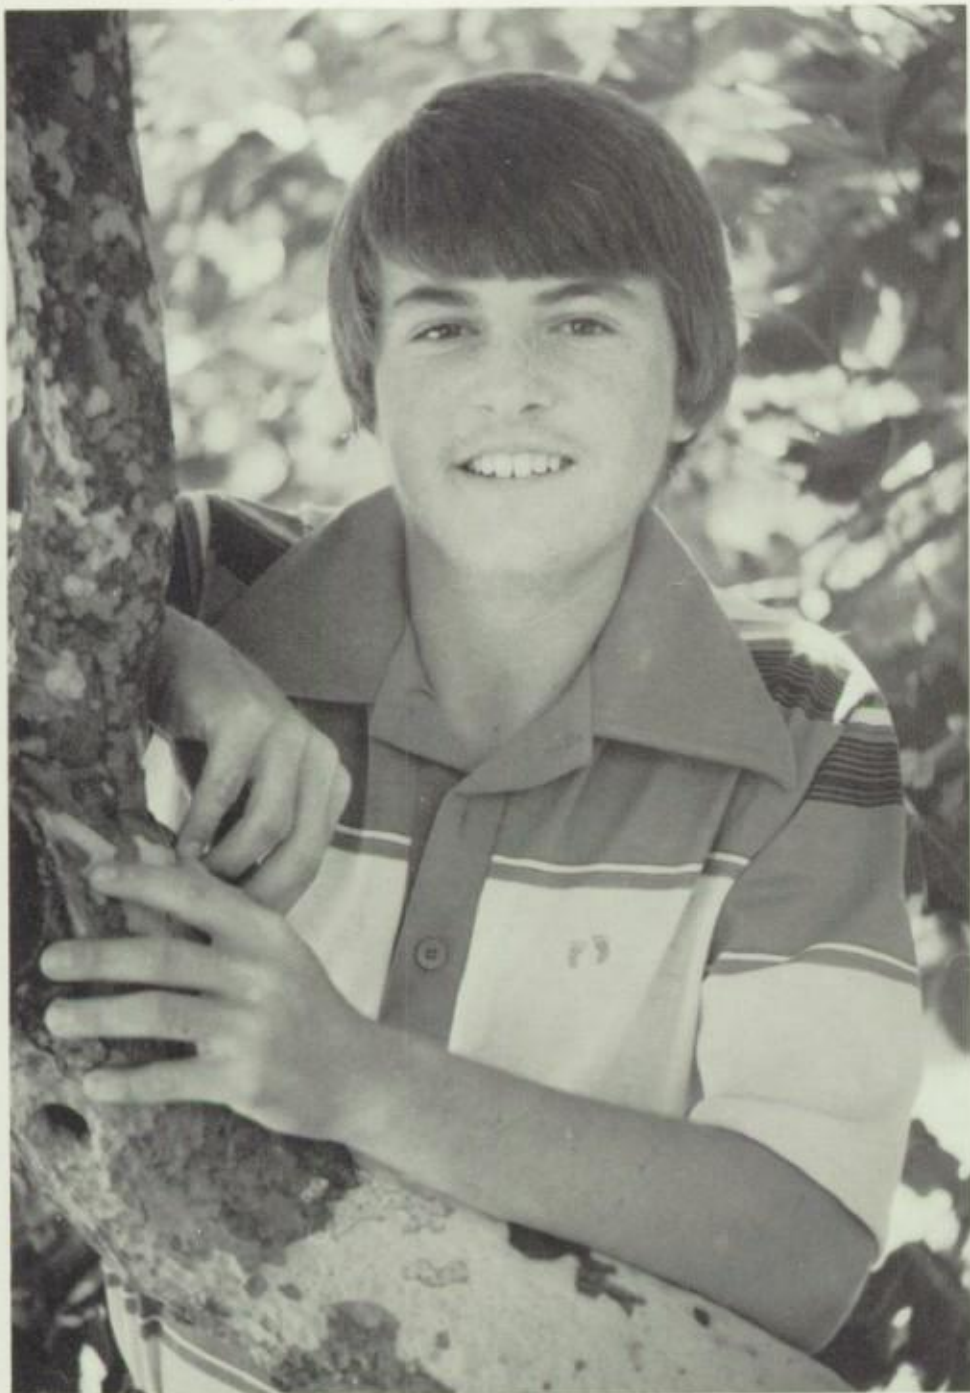

Monica Mairose

Friendship is one of God's greatest gifts.

Frank Zaldivar

Mark Thomas

Diane Schipper

If at first you do succeed—try to hide your astonishment!

Ann Babauta

Not all beautiful things can be seen, but must be felt with the heart.

Marilyn Rianda

The best are not always the happiest, but the happiest are usually the best.

Joe Aliotti

David Walker

*When I was young and my heart was an open book,
I used to say live and let live, but when this ever changing world in which we live in makes you learn to live and let die! Ha! Ha!*

Tom Hiserman

Francesca Skoczylas

Take it slow, we've got so far to go.

Laura Garvin

Gonna cruise out of this city, head down to the sea, gonna shout out at the ocean, hey its me.

Margaret Arista

Michael Braga

Mark Leemaster

Jesse Perez

Cyndie Fournier

We all live under the same sky, but we don't all have the same horizon.

Heidi Humphreys

Art is one step from the visibly known toward the unknown

John Given

*I am rather like a mosquito in a nudist camp;
I know what I ought to do, but I don't know where to begin.*

Tom DeLappe

Vicki MacKie

*You just call out my name and you know where ever I am, I'll come running to see you again.
You've got a friend*

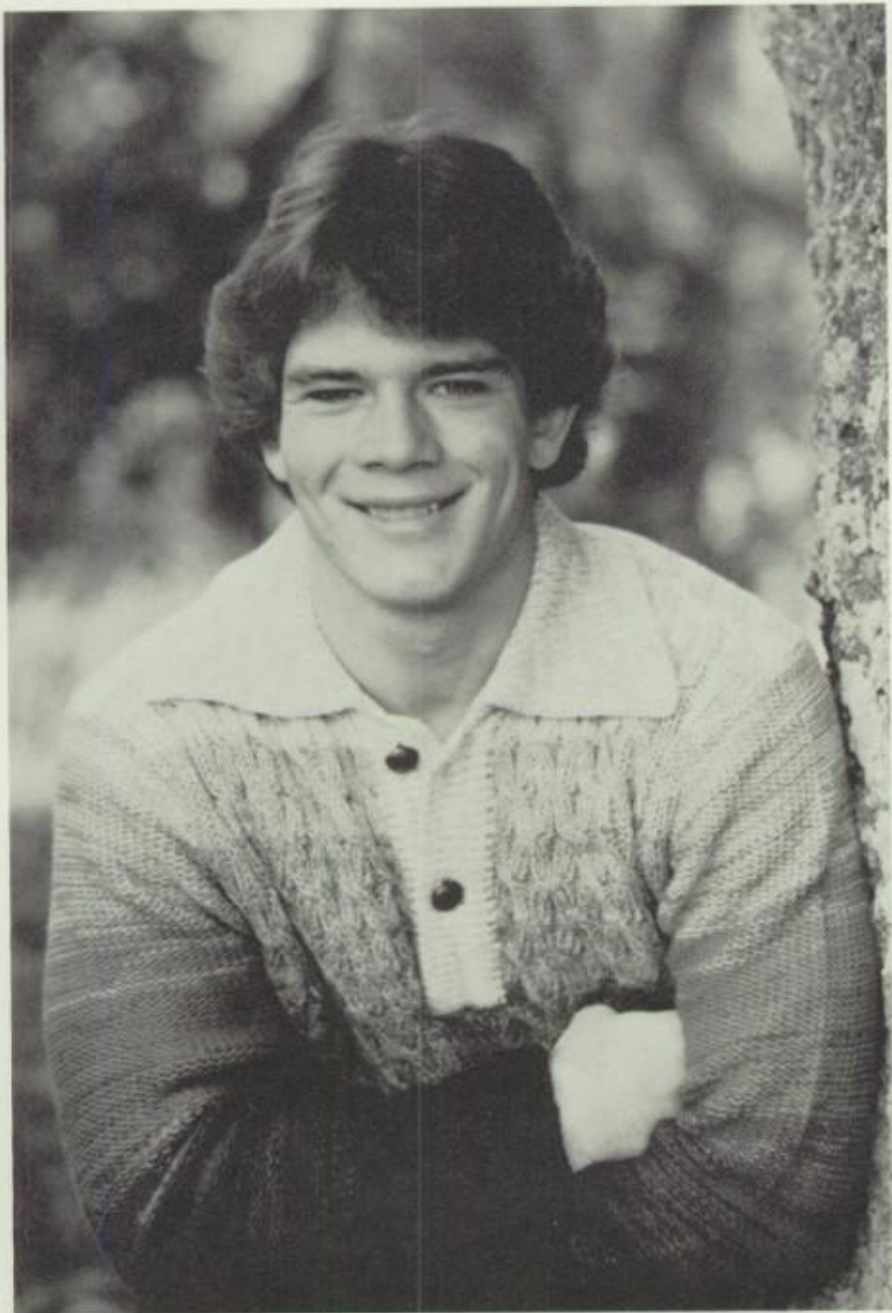

Pat Hitchcock

Tim Murnighan

Some are born great, some achieve greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon them. Then there are those of us who don't have to worry about it.

Scott Henderson

Evette Selva

Yet wisdom, love, joy, growth, these are not effects caused by what we have, but by who we are becoming.

Margie Llano

I am lonely but you can free me, all in the way you smile.

Sandra Carr

We are all but travelers in this world, so let us say what we think and speak what we feel.

Danny Fiorio

Kevin Tosolini

No stop lights, speed limits, nobody's going to hold me down.

Tom McCoun

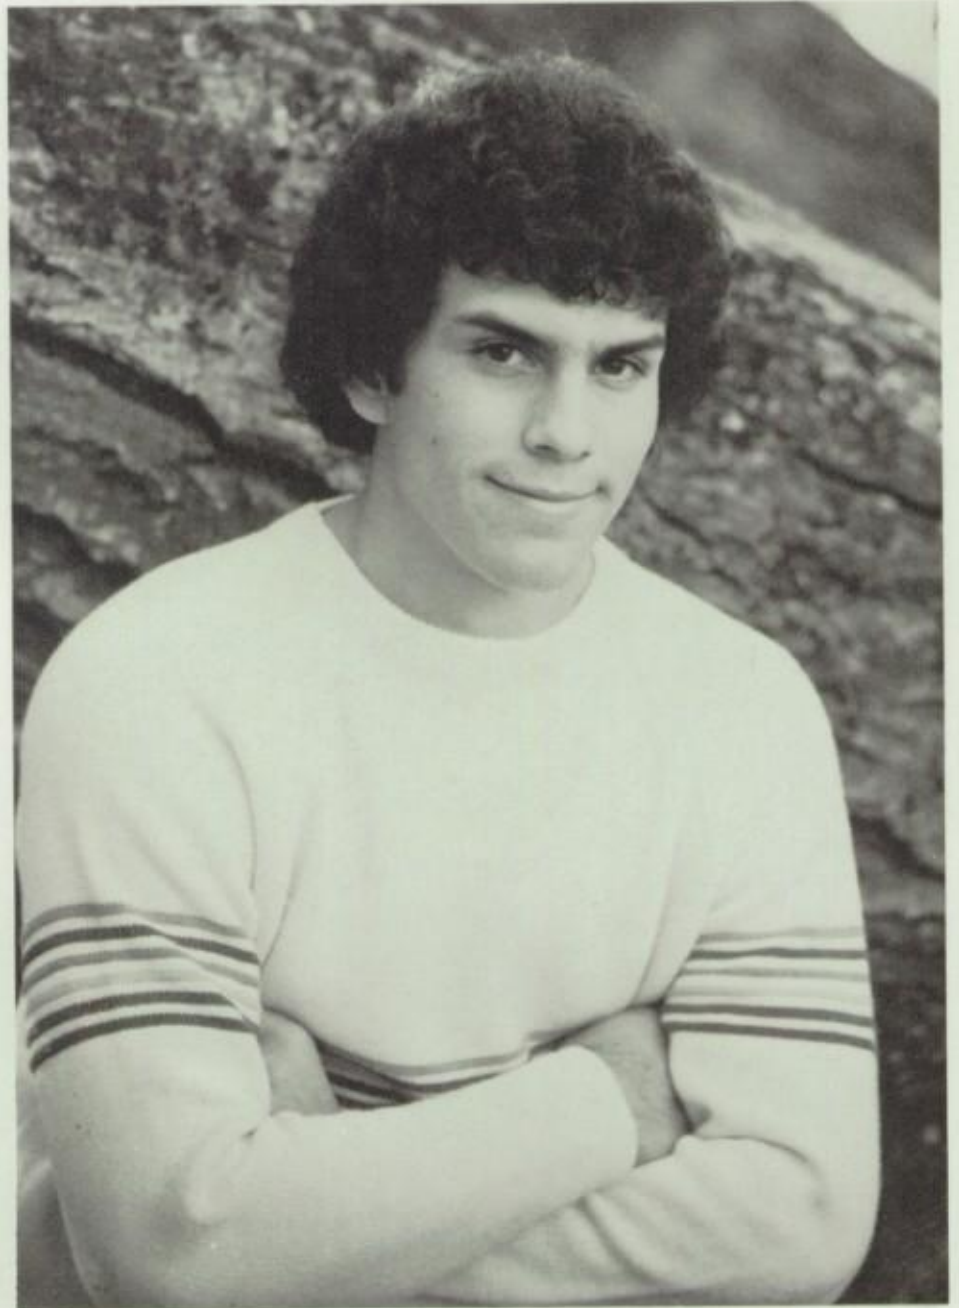

Julie Barberi

Gaylene Willis

Children of life are we, as we stand with our lives uncarved before us.

Matt Echevaria

Ann Cecilian

I am what I am, and I have a need to be.

BOYS' SPORTS

Chieftains Chalk Up

The 1979 Varsity football team, though posting a winning record of 6 wins, 4 losses overall and 5 wins, 2 losses in league play, ended the season with a disappointing third place in the MTAL.

The Chieftains opened the season with a 21-0 trouncing of Alisal. They dropped the next two encounters, however, to Atascadero and North Salinas. Rebounding from these, the Chief's league opener against arch-rival Gonzales resulted in an extremely gratifying 21-0 shutout.

But then came the heartbreaker. Second year North Monterey managed to barely slip by the Chiefs, 7-0. The Condors eventually won the league title undefeated. Coach Costa, along with Coaches Wright, Rossi and Ross, set about to completely reorganize the offense. Utilizing the talents of Dave Walker, the Chiefs developed the infamous "crunch" play. Running behind team captains Matt Echeveria, Jon Cook, and Ken Cardona, Walker soon became the fourth back in the history of the school to gain over 1,000 yards. Mark Zabricki, also co-captain, executed the plays well from his position at quarterback.

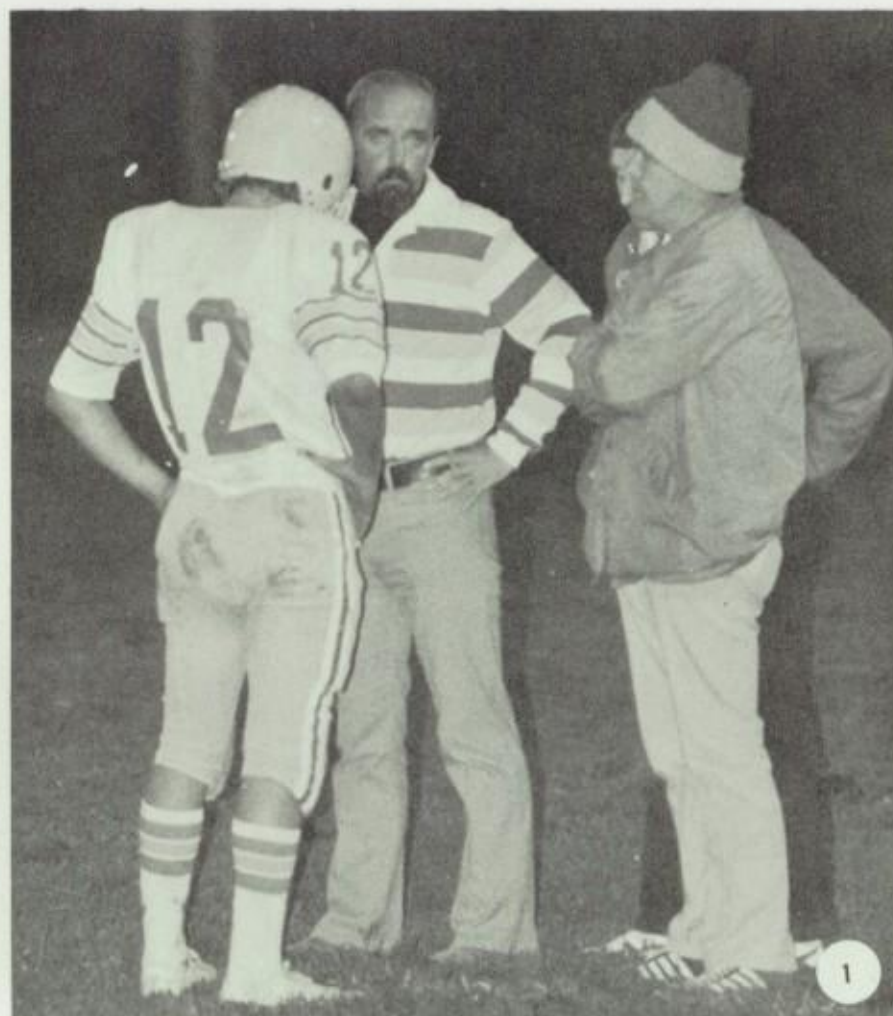

The defense, which allowed no more than 8 points per opponent for the first 6 league games, was the best in the league. Phil Caraccioli, Aaron Palma, Kelly McDermott, Dave Bernadasci, Todd Guzik, Victor Brito, John Brigantino, Mike House, and Tom Gendreau were but a few who made the defense what it was.

The Chieftains went on to win the next 5 games. Homecoming '79 was a huge success, with Palma demolishing the RLS Pirates, 42-6 in the years highest scoring game. It was the first Homecoming the Chieftains had won in four years.

The season ended with a dismal loss to Hollister. The rain nullified the Chiefs running game, and aided in a few costly mistakes. Bad luck gave Hollister a last minute TD bomb pass, and they slipped by the Chiefs, 12-8.

All-League awards went to Matt Echeveria, Dave Walker (Co-back of the Year); Jon Cook (winner of the Golden Helmet Award and the only Senior in the league to make All-League two years in a row), and Phil Caraccioli. Honorable Mention went to Ken Cardona, Mike House, Todd Guzik, and Kelly McDermott.

The Chiefs were also plagued by medical misfortune. Seniors Jesse Perez, Steve Jurevich, and Tom Hiserman all had promising seasons cut short due to illness and or injury.

The 1979 Varsity Football Team: Tom Gendreau, Matt Echeveria, Pat Merrill, Lonnie White, Jon Cook, Todd Guzik, Fred Redik, Victor Brito, Mike Routen, Matt Flores, Jim Garvin, Scott Henderson, Kelly McDermott, Coach Norm Costa, Coach Ross, David Tottino, Tom Hiserman, Mark Pezzini, Gabe Ramirez, Chris Thomas, John Brigantino, Al Miller, Matt Pezzini, David Bernadasci, Gary Silacci, Mike Spencer, Coach Wright, Coach Rossi, Bill Ryan,

Summit Staff

This years "Summit" was on the whole an effort by a few to produce something of enjoyment for all those students who attended Palma and Notre Dame. Special thanks are owed to Rory Coster, Ken Cook, Merril O'Grady, Cindy Fournier, Pam Rueda, Hector Guzman, Gabe Fernandez, and all those students and faculty who contributed. Without these people's long hours of work there would be no 1980 "Summit". Our publisher, Josten's American Yearbook Company, terms a successful yearbook as one that "appeals to the majority of the students for whom it is designed." This is certainly what we tried to do with this book. However, like all books it has its good points and bad points. But, we feel that our good points far outweigh our bad points. Enjoy the book and I wish you every success in your coming school years.

Yours very truly,

Robert Eklund

Apologies to all those workers who's pictures we missed.

Rev. Martin Morley 1914 — 1980

We the students of Palma and Notre Dame High Schools, regret the passing of Rev. Martin Morley on June 16, 1980. We will always remember him as our friend who was always there. Father Morley was a dedicated servant of God who devoted his life to the counseling of high school students. Father was also a devoted supporter of athletics. His presence was evident at almost every athletic and social event. We will all miss Father and cherish the memories of the year we had with him.
